

Fake Amazon Calls

and how to spot one

Have you or someone you know received a call from Amazon lately? Be alert! There's a new scam going around and this one can be tricky.

How it works: "Amazon Customer Service" calls and says there is an issue with a recent purchase - the issue ranges from fraudulent activity to lost package - and they need to verify your account. Some calls start as a pre-recorded message and ask that you press "1", others start with a "live Customer Service Representative". Once they have your attention, they will try to pressure you into giving them your bank account or credit card information as well as your Amazon log in details to "confirm" the purchase in question. Their hope is to gain access to your account, where all your payment information is stored.

What you should do: Hang up immediately. Do not give out any information. If you have recently ordered with Amazon and are concerned there is an issue, call a trusted number. DO NOT call any numbers the caller may have provided you with. You can easily find Amazon's verified customer service number by logging into your Amazon account.

How to spot this scam: Be skeptical of unsolicited phone calls. Amazon will typically notify you by email. If Amazon does contact you, they will never ask you to disclose or verify sensitive information. Amazon will never ask for payment in any other format outside of their website. Ignore calls for immediate action. Fraudsters want you to react before giving you a chance to think by creating a sense of urgency. Slow down, think it through.

Beware of requests to pay using gift cards, CashApp, or other non-traditional payment methods. These are typical signs of fraud.

What to do if you think you have fallen victim to this scam: First and foremost, contact your financial institution ASAP. You want to make sure your accounts are safe and secure. Your financial institution can help you determine the next steps. Then, report the call to Amazon's customer service. You can find the steps to do this on Amazon's website.

The team at F&M Bank is here to help keep your accounts safe and secure. If you feel you have been a victim of any fraud, please reach out as soon as possible.

To Our Valued Clients

Why is Culture so important to the overall success of an organization? Have you ever heard “Culture eats strategy for breakfast” or “Culture trumps strategy”? Organizational culture is defined as the set of shared core values and norms that characterize a particular organization. A strong culture, in which team members agree upon and care intensely about organizational values, can improve business performance by motivating employees and coordinating their behaviors towards a common vision and specific performance goals that benefit the company. Characteristics of a healthy corporate culture are enthusiasm, open communication, integrity, motivation, respect, selflessness, trust, transparency and unification.

It is important that we reiterate and even over-communicate why we exist. At F&M Bank, we exist for three very important reasons. First, to provide the financial services for our clients which enable them to live out their personal and professional dreams. We exist to serve you, our valued clients. Second, to provide our team members a means to a living; to help them raise their families and live out their best version of themselves. Third, to make an impact in the communities we serve. Our culture allows us to work together as a team, while keeping the “Why” at the forefront.

In October, at our annual bank wide training day in Mason City, our F&M Team devoted time to building upon relationships and celebrating our successes. We also spent time working together on how we continue to grow as “One Team, One Culture with One Vision”. One of the most impactful parts of the day were the videos created by clients and team members who have either experienced the F&M “Personal Touch” or been a recipient of our F&M Cares program. Our team appreciated the stories that were shared.

As 2021 comes to a close, our team is working to wrap up the final forgiveness applications for rounds one and two of the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP). In summary, we were able to fund over $195 million in loans to small business owners to help them navigate uncharted waters. The Paycheck Protection Program was instrumental in helping businesses keep their doors open and employees paid. I am very proud of our team’s efforts in helping facilitate both PPP rounds.

With the holidays upon us, we first want to say Thank You. We also would like to wish you a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

With Gratitude,

Nate

^ TREATS ON THE STREETS

Martha and Karen handed out over 530 cocoa packets at Treats on the Streets in Monticello.

< BLOOD DRIVE

On September 7th we held our fall blood drive at the Anamosa High School and collected a total of 37 units! This helped 148 local patients. We exceeded our goal and was the highest turnout since 2018!

Follow us on Facebook to get information on our upcoming blood drives!

^ GRILL OUT

Anamosa hosted a Grill Out in support of the Freedom Rock of Jones County, which is located in Stone City. Artist Ray Sorensen started the Freedom Rock tour with a goal of honoring veterans through a piece of art in each of Iowa’s 99 counties. Through the grill out event, F&M Bank was proud to donate $1075 towards this great cause! The team served 150 people on this beautiful day. Thank you to all who attended!

WELCOME TO THE TEAM!

Jami Schlarmann

Jami joined our team in July and will be in our Monticello location. She brings over 15 years of banking experience. She is very excited to join F&M Bank for many reasons, but one of the most enticing is the involvement in the community and the balance between work & home life. She and her husband John live in rural Monticello where they have a cattle/crop farm and trucking business. They have three children, Kinzi (15), Haili (14) and Nick (9). In Jami’s free time she enjoys boating, taking jeep rides, golfing & watching their kids show cattle.

Banking with F&M Bank is simple and effortless. Our transition was seamless. We are so glad we chose F&M!
